Drawings

1. The specification and claims do not appear to significantly rely on Fig. 3, however, Fig. 3 is illegible to the point of being unexaminable. Applicant may want to enlarge Fig. 3 and put it on its own sheet separate from Fig. 4.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Referring to claim 1 and Fig. 2, as best understood, the first stage is directed toward 210, the second stage is directed toward 220, the additive circuit is directed toward the connection between M8 and M9 and the subtractive circuit is directed toward M4. The disclosure is not seen to technically support the alternate language of the subtractive circuit portion of the claim. The subtractive circuit M4 only subtracts the first stage contribution, never the second stage contribution. Dependent claim 7 expands on the structure of the subtractive circuit and claims 8 and 9 expand on the function of the subtractive circuit. Claim 9 is understood, claim 8 is not. Again, there appears to be no proper technical support for the first stage 210 to remove the contribution of the second stage 220 by way of the subtractive circuit M4. Claims 1 and 8 are not seen to be properly enabled by the technical scope and spirit of the disclosure. Claims 2-7 and 9 are rejected as depending from rejected claim 1.

Claims 10, 16, 18 and 20 are rejected as have the same problems noted above. The remaining claims are rejected as depending on a rejected base claim.

Art Unit: 2816

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 2, 3 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Referring to claim 2 line 8, as best understood, the second FET is directed toward M2 and the third FET is directed toward M3. Accordingly, the gate and drain of the third FET should be connected to the second FET, not the first FET.

Referring to claim 3 line 5, as best understood, the first FET is directed toward M5 and the resistor is directed toward RN. Accordingly, resistor should be connected to the first FET, not the second FET.

Referring to claim 12 line 5, as best understood, the NMOS is directed toward M5 and the resistor is directed toward RN. Accordingly, resistor should be connected to the NMOS, not the PMOS.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. The Prior Art of record does not appear to disclose a voltage to current converter with a pair of stages and a subtraction circuit wherein the subtraction circuit subtracts the contribution of the first stage when both stages are operating in mid-range.
